Medway branch is 20 years old and welcomes new members.

The branch has a good relationship with the Trust which now has Foundation status. Membership is 80 and attendance at meetings averages 50 members. We support local charities and have a raffle for branch funds

We have interesting and informative talks at monthly meetings and on the social side we have day outings to the countryside, theatres etc

On the welfare side, we visit any sick members

The Committee meets four times a year and we are usually represented at Conference and Regional meetings
